

DAVIDE ALOGNA, violino

Davide Alogna (Palermo, 1980) has eclectic and international music education.

He graduated both in violin and piano with honour at Conservatorio "Giuseppe Verdi" in Como and he obtain his master diploma in solist violin and chambre music at the Conservatoire de Paris with a "Premier Prix a l'Unanimité".

He also studied composition and graduated with a special mention at Accademia Chigiana of Siena with Giuliano Carmignola .

In 2016 he has debuted at the Stern Hall of Carnegie Hall in New York.

In October 2017 his debut at the Teatro alla

Scala in Milan.

Davide Alogna has performed as a soloist at such prestigious venues and festivals as the Berliner Philharmonie, Carnegie Hall (Stern Hall), Suntory Hall of Tokyo, Smetana Hall of Prague, Salle Cortot of Paris, Gasteig and Herkulesaal in Munich, Ateneo de Madrid Teatro Bibiena of Mantova, Auditorium Verdi in Milano, Palacio de Bellas Artes in Mexico City, Prince Mahidol Hall in Bangkok and Yongsan Art Hall in Seoul. He has been accompanied by some of the world's leading orchestras, including Orchestra da Camera della Scala, Orchestra Arturo Toscanini, Orchestra Filarmonica Italiana, Thailand Philharmonic Orchestra, Munich Kammerphilharmonie, Tchaikovsky Philharmonic, Northern Czech Philharmonic, Chamber Orchestra of New York, New England Symphony, Mexico State Symphony Orchestra, Bellas Arte Chamber Orchestra, Monterrey Symphony, Istanbul Philharmonic, Adana State Symphony Orchestra, Kalisz Philharmonic and the Lutowski Filarmonic Orchestra, alongside great soloists and conductors including Natalia Gutman, Eliso Virsaladze, Shlomo Mintz, Bruno Canino, Roberto Prosseda, Roberto Plano, Lior Shambadal, Giulio Tampalini, Hakan Sensoy and Francesco Lanzillotta.

His solo career began in 2009 with the Prix d'Interprétation Musicale de la Cité Universitaire de Paris, and in 2010 he was awarded the Excellence Prize in Music in Milano.

In 2009 he has given a Stradivari for different exhibitions for RAI 1, for the Council of Ministers, and a tournée with Brahms Sonatas in U.S.A.

He has recorded for different labels, including Amadeus, Brilliant Classics, Velut Luna, Phoenix Classics and Map Edition and he is a regular guest on prominent radio stations, such as RAI Radio 3, Radio Classica, Swiss Italian Radio, Venice Classical and Radio France.

In September 2016 he released a CD of music for violin and piano with the pianist Bruno Canino, through the magazine Suonare News.

He is Professor of Violin at the 'F. Cilea' Conservatoire in Reggio Calabria (Italy), and at the IMEP (Institut Supérieur de Musique et Pédagogie) in Belgium.

Davide Alogna performs on his precious Giuseppe Fiorini (Munich 1906).