

ILARIA LARUCCIA, clarinetto

Ilaria Larucciasì was born in Genova in 1992. She graduated in clarinet at the Conservatory Niccolò Paganini of Genoa with Piero Paolo Fantini in 2012, then in 2014 she took the Master's Degree with a vote of 110 and praise. She studied and participated at masterclasses with Ricardo Morales, Enrico Maria Baroni, Riccardo Crocilla, Corrado Orlando, Giuseppe Laruccia, Marie-B Barriere-Bilote.

She played at the Auditorium Parco della Musica in Rome on the tour of the pianist Giovanni Allevi and at the Grunghalle in Essen on the tour of the video game Zelda with Orchestra Sinfonica Italiana.

With Trio Temoin, she collaborates with Luigi Maio - "il Musicattore"® performing Histoire du soldat of Igor Stravinskij.

She played with jazzist Gabriele Mirabassi on the Ismez tour, ended with a concert at the Casa del Jazz in Rome.

She regularly plays with the Orchestra Spazio Musica, with productions as Don Giovanni, Così fan tutte, Cavalleria rusticana, La cambiale di matrimonio, Madama Butterfly, Boheme, Traviata; these last three with the conductor Maurizio Arena.

She also plays the basset horn, taking part in productions of Mozart's Requiem and Gran Partita.