

MANTEGNA QUARTET

The Mantegna Quartet has been founded in 2002 for a concert, with the pianist Bruno Canino, entire dedicated to Mozart. Since then, the Quartet is invited regularly to play for important Italian Music Seasons and abroad as "Trame Sonore" in Mantova, "I Concerti del Quirinale" in Rome, MondoMusica in Cremona, Société de Musique Contemporaine in Lausanne, Gioventù Musicale of Italy, Amici della Musica di Foligno, Amici della Musica di Latina, Festival Pontino, Festival des Beaux de Provence, Università di Udine, Università Statale di Milano, Gomhouria Theater In Cairo.

The Mantegna Quartet have many collaboration with great Artists as Bruno Canino, Antonio Ballista, Emanuele Segre, Sylvie Gazeau and the actor Ugo Pagliai.

The repertoire goes from the Baroque Music until the Contemporary Music.

In 2006, The Mantegna Quartet gave the Italian Première of the Thomas Adès "Piano Quintet" with Bruno Canino. In 2007, a Live DVD has made of the Dvořák Quintet in the Biblioteca dell'Angelica in Rome, with the pianist Bruno Canino.